

WELCOMING DR. GERD HEUSCHMANN TO FLORIDA

MAY 20 - 21 2017

Dr. Heuschmann comes to the US twice a year. We are honored and delighted to host his clinic at Wellborn Quarter Horses in Wellborn FL.

Schedule for Saturday and Sunday: Lecture has unlimited spaces. Rider spaces are very limited.

Mornings are lecture and discussion. Following a catered lunch, the Afternoons are for Private lessons with Gerd. He only takes 4 riders per day.

Prices:

Lecture (2 days): $160 per person for the two days. Your fee includes auditing the lessons as well as the lecture and catered lunch. Payment in full, with your reservation is requested.

Private Lesson: $175 per lesson, 50% deposit required

World renowned veterinarian, Bereiter (Master Trainer), and author Dr. Gerd Heuschmann will present a two-day symposium on the Biomechanics of Soundness. Dr. Heuschmann is based at the Warendorf Veterinary Clinic associated with the German National Riding School. A respected international lecturer, Dr. Heuschmann educates equestrians on how to make the sport better for the horse. A true horse lover and voice for the horse, Dr. Heuschmann boldly speaks about the damaging effects of incorrect riding and training methods. He is the author of several books including "Tug of War" and "Balancing Act". He also has a DVD "If Horses Could Speak".
